

Chairman - RNCCA

Are you the person we are looking for?
Are you organised? Are you dynamic? Are you a 'people person'? Are you looking for a new challenge? Are you passionate about the Navy, and the Communications Branch?

The RNCCA is looking for a proactive Chairman to head-up a close-knit Committee who are currently based mainly in Hampshire.

The Chairman's duties include, but are not limited to:

- Chairing the Annual General Meeting, chairing quarterly committee meetings, and ensuring and overseeing the smooth running of the association.
- Liaising with the President, committee and association members; keeping the President informed of all relevant matters.

You will utilise the project management, leadership, and organisational skills you acquired during your service as a Communications Chief/Warrant Officer in the Navy.

This is a voluntary position which can be extremely rewarding and enjoyable.

Please contact the Honorary Secretary on telephone 01329 312490 or email honsec@rncca.org.uk for more information.
